Your Policy Summary

Animal Friends Insurance is underwritten by Red Sands Insurance Company (Europe) Ltd.

This policy is a fixed-term contract of insurance that provides cover for the cost of vet treatment required by your pet along with additional cover. You may need to review and update the cover provided by your policy periodically to ensure it remains adequate for your pet.

By applying for this policy, you confirm that you meet the minimum inception criteria outlined in this document and that your demands and needs for veterinary cover are met by the features and benefits of this policy, now and in the future.

Our Prestige policy is the most comprehensive policy we offer. It is a Lifetime policy, and will look to cover costs incurred from accidents, injuries and conditions, and could cover ongoing illnesses over a number of years, as long as you keep renewing your policy. It has an annual limit for each condition which refreshes upon annual renewal. This means a long-term illness like arthritis, diabetes or prostate disease will be covered year after year as long as you keep your policy live.

We will not apply any exclusions to your policy regarding illnesses, injuries or conditions that you have claimed for since taking out the policy with us; so as long as you keep renewing your policy you will continue to be covered. If you cancel your Lifetime policy, you may find exclusions applied to any new policy you might purchase. This means you need to weigh up the ongoing advantages of a Lifetime policy against potential changes to your premium over the life of your pet.

Also, if your pet has received treatment for a particular illness or injury which appears in another part of the body at a later date, for example the other leg, ear or eye, we will treat this as the same condition. This is known as a "bilateral condition". When applying a benefit limit or exclusion bilateral conditions are considered as one condition.

The following table provides a summary of the key policy features and benefits and any significant limits or exclusions.

We have also included a frequently asked questions section after this summary. For full policy details and our full terms and conditions, please read your policy wording.

Other important information

The relevant law of England and Wales will apply to the policy and the relevant courts of England and Wales will have exclusive jurisdiction unless you have asked for another law and we have agreed to this in writing before the commencement date. In accordance with the Equality Act 2010 we are able to provide, upon request, a textphone facility, audio tapes and large print documentation. Please advise us if you require any of these services to be provided so that we can communicate in an appropriate manner.

What is a Lifetime Policy?

A Lifetime policy will look to cover costs incurred from accidents, injuries and conditions, and could cover ongoing illnesses over a number of years as long as the policy remains in force. While each policy has an annual limit for each condition, this refreshes upon annual renewal and as long as the policy is continually renewed, exclusions will not be applied. This means long-term illnesses will be covered as long as you keep your policy live, even if the illness spans a number of years.

If you cancel your Lifetime policy, you may find exclusions applied to any new policy you might purchase, either with us or with another provider. This means you need to weigh up the ongoing advantages of a Lifetime policy against potential changes to your premium over the life of your pet.

Can I claim for 'Out of hours' and do I need Pre-authorisation?

If you feel your pet requires immediate treatment please note the following exclusion (1.3.15) which applies to: any costs for house calls; out-of-hours fees; hospitalisation and ambulance costs (where covered) unless the vet confirms it was necessary to prevent a life endangering condition. You must notify AFI immediately if total vet fees are likely to exceed £1,000.

Are there any special conditions involved for bi-lateral conditions such as cruciate claims?

Where a condition is affecting one body part of which your pet has two, one on each side of the body (e.g. ears, eyes, knees, cruciate ligaments) this will be considered a bilateral condition and when applying the benefit limit or an exclusion, bilateral conditions are considered as one condition.

What does the veterinary fees claim excess mean?

The excess is the amount that you pay towards each accident, illness or condition you claim for. You will pay an excess for each new condition and this will be deducted from the first claim relating to that condition. If you claim for the same condition over multiple policy years (i.e. following annual renewal of the policy) you will find a new excess is deducted each year.

How is an excess applied to a Lifetime Policy?

There is an excess to pay on the policy in the event of a claim for vet fees. This is the amount you are required to pay towards each new accident, injury or condition for the duration of the policy. The excess is deducted from the overall limit of your cover, please refer to your schedule for a breakdown of the maximum policy limits applicable.

So, with your per-condition limit of £6,000, if you have selected an excess of £69, the maximum settlement made would be £5,931 for a single condition. Your limits refresh annually, so if the claim spans multiple years you will find that the excess is applied to the replenished per-condition limit.

Please check your policy summary to see how excesses might be applied to non-veterinary benefits.

When does a Co-payment apply?

Depending on your policy type and the age of your pet, a co-payment may also apply, which is the amount that you are required to pay towards a claim (in addition to the excess). A co-payment is generally payable for dogs aged 8 years and older and for cats aged 10 years and older, and please check your Policy Schedule to confirm the exact percentage applicable. The co-payment is deducted from the overall limit of your cover. By way of an example, if you have an excess of £69 and a co-payment percent of 35% the maximum settlement would be £3,855.15 for a single condition in a single year.

Do AFI provide policies outside the UK?

Our policies only provide cover for residents in the UK, Isle of Man and The Channel Islands. We also offer insurance to the Ministry of Defence bases providing they are serving in Europe and can provide a BFPO mailing address.
